✏ELTE Agreeing with statements 261

1. Agree with the following statements:

   "I have never been to Australia." "_____"

A So have I.

✓ B Neither have I.

C Neither do I.

D So did I.

i The first sentence is negative and uses the present perfect (have never been). We use Neither + have + subject to agree with a negative statement.

2. "She can speak three languages." "_____"

A Neither can I.

B So do I.

✓ C So can I.

D So am I.

i The first sentence is affirmative and contains the modal verb can. We use So + can + subject to express agreement.

3. "We didn't enjoy the film." "_____"

A So didn't we.

✓ B Neither did we.

C Neither have we.

D So do we.

i The first sentence is negative in the past simple (didn't enjoy). We use Neither + did + subject.

4. “Tom is really interested in science.” “_____”

A Neither am I.

B So do I.

✓ C So am I.

D So have I.

i The verb is is a form of the verb to be in the present simple. We use So + am + subject to agree with an affirmative statement.

5. “I won't be able to attend the meeting.” “_____”

✓ A Neither will I.

B So won't I.

C Neither do I.

D Neither can I.

i The first sentence is negative and uses will. We use Neither + will + subject. Notice that we do not repeat the negative form won't.

6. “My parents have already booked their holidays.” “_____”

A So did mine.

B Neither have mine.

✓ C So have mine.

D So are mine.

i The first sentence uses the present perfect (have booked) and is affirmative. We use So + have + subject. Mine refers to my parents.

7. “I don't usually eat fast food.” “_____”

A So don't I.

✓ B Neither do I.

C Neither am I.

D So haven't I.

i The first sentence is negative in the present simple. The auxiliary do is used with the main verb eat. Therefore, we use Neither + do + subject.

8. “James was extremely disappointed with the results.” “_____”

A So did I.

B Neither was I.

✓ C So was I.

D So have I.

i The first sentence is affirmative and uses was (past simple of to be). We use So + was + subject.

9. “I must finish this report before Friday.” “_____”

✓ A So must I.

B Neither must I.

C So do I.

D So have I.

i The first sentence uses the modal verb must. We repeat the same modal verb after so: So + must + subject.

10. "We were told to arrive early." "_____"

✓ A So were we.

B Neither were we.

C So did we.

D Neither did we.

i The first sentence is affirmative and uses the passive voice in the past simple (were told). We repeat the auxiliary were after so.

11. “They haven't visited the new museum yet.” “_____”

A So haven't we.

B Neither did we.

✓ C Neither have we.

D So have we.

i The first sentence is negative in the present perfect (haven't visited). We use Neither + have + subject.

12. “I would love to work abroad.” “_____”

A Neither would I.

✓ B So would I.

C So will I.

D So did I.

i The first sentence is affirmative and uses the modal would. We use So + would + subject to express agreement.

13. "Sarah doesn't like being interrupted." "_____"

A So doesn't her brother.

✓ B Neither does her brother.

C Neither is her brother.

D So does her brother.

i The first sentence is negative in the present simple. The main verb is like, so we need the auxiliary does. We use Neither + does + subject.

14. "I haven't finished reading the novel." "_____"

A So haven't I.

B Neither did I.

✓ C Neither have I.

D So have I.

i The first sentence is negative in the present perfect. We use Neither + have + subject to agree with it.

15. "Mark will probably move to London next year." "_____"

A Neither will I.

B So do I.

✓ C So will I.

D So am I.

i The first sentence is affirmative and uses will to refer to the future. We use So + will + subject.
