ELTE Welcome 2026! Easy-peasy conditionals quiz 54

1. ELTE Welcome 2026! Conditionals quiz 54

If I _____ (win) the lottery, I would travel around the world.

- ☐ A have won
- ☐ B win
- ☐ C had won
- ☒ D won

i The sentence uses the second conditional, which describes an unlikely or hypothetical situation in present. 'Won' is the past simple tense required for this conditional type.

2. If he _____ (study) harder, he would have passed the exam.

- ☐ A studies
- ☐ B has studied
- ☐ C studied
- ☒ D had studied

i This is a third conditional sentence, used for past hypothetical situations. 'Had studied' uses the past perfect tense, suitable for this condition.

3. If it _____ (rain) tomorrow, we will cancel the picnic.

- ☐ A rained
- ☒ B rains
- ☐ C will rain
- ☐ D has rained

i This sentence uses the first conditional, commonly used for real conditions referring to future possibilities. 'Rains' is present simple, which fits the pattern: if + present simple, will + base verb.

4. If they _____ (know) her better, they would like her.

- ☐ A know
- ☒ B knew
- ☐ C known
- ☐ D will know

i This sentence is a second conditional expressing an unreal or improbable present situation. 'Knew' is the past simple tense needed for the condition.

5. If you heat water to 100 degrees Celsius, it _____ (boil).

- ☐ A boiled
- ☐ B boiling
- ☒ C boils
- ☐ D will boil

i This refers to a scientific fact, hence a zero conditional. The zero conditional structure uses present simple in both clauses: 'boils' is correct.

6. If she _____ (read) the book when assigned, she would know the plot now.

- ☐ A read
- ☐ B will read
- ☐ C reads
- ☒ D had read

i This sentence uses a mixed conditional, which refers to a past condition with a present result. 'Had read' is correct.

7. If the train _____ (arrive) on time, we will be there by noon.

- ☐ A has arrived
- ☐ B will arrive
- ☐ C arrived
- ☒ D arrives

i This is a first conditional sentence, indicating a future situation that depends on a current condition. 'Arrives' is the correct present simple tense.

8. If she _____ (be) more careful, she would not have slipped.

- ☐ A was
- ☒ B had been
- ☐ C will be
- ☐ D is

i A third conditional is used, describing an unreal past condition and its probable result in the past. 'Had been' fits as past perfect.

9. If they _____ (tell) me earlier, I could have helped.

- ☐ A will tell
- ☐ B told
- ☐ C tell
- ☒ D had told

i This is a third conditional, expressing a hypothetical past situation. 'Had told' uses past perfect to state what did not happen.

10. If the sun _____ (set), it gets cooler.

- ☐ A set
- ☒ B sets
- ☐ C has set
- ☐ D will set

i This is a zero conditional sentence, describing a general truth using present simple tense. 'Sets' fits the pattern.

11. If they _____ (finish) the report today, it would be great.

- ☐ A finish
- ☐ B finishes
- ☒ C finished
- ☐ D had finished

i The sentence is a second conditional, expressing an unlikely situation. 'Finished', past simple, is needed for this form.

12. I _____ (go) if I had known about it.

- ☐ A went
- ☐ B will go
- ☒ C would have gone
- ☐ D go

i A third conditional structure is in use, indicating a past condition with potential result. 'Would have gone' reflects the hypothetical situation.

13. If you _____ (press) the button, the machine will stop.

- ☐ A will press
- ☒ B press
- ☐ C have pressed
- ☐ D pressed

i This is a first conditional for future possibilities based on an action. 'Press', present simple, fits in the condition clause.

14. If John _____ (get) home early, he would cook dinner.

- ☐ A had gotten
- ☐ B get
- ☒ C got
- ☐ D gets

i Employing the second conditional, 'got' is needed for unreal present conditions impacting hypothetical outcomes.

15. If she _____ (not miss) the bus, she would have arrived on time.

- ☒ A had not missed
- ☐ B did not miss
- ☐ C does not miss
- ☐ D will not miss

i This question uses the third conditional for missed opportunities in the past. 'Had not missed' fits the past perfect tense.
