

ELTE Health & Safety quiz 107

1. ELTE Health & Safety quiz 106

You should never _____ a fire exit with equipment; it must remain clear for emergencies.

- (A) jeopardize
- (B) hit
- (C) obstruct
- (D) malfunction

2. The kitchen floor was still wet from mopping, causing the waiter to _____ and drop the tray.

- (A) trip
- (B) slip
- (C) skid
- (D) obstruct

3. As the temperature dropped below freezing, the car began to _____ across the icy patches on the highway.

- (A) collide
- (B) malfunction
- (C) skid
- (D) jeopardize

4. If the wound is deep, it will continue to _____ until you apply a sterile bandage and pressure. Look at all this blood!

- (A) break
- (B) scald
- (C) bleed
- (D) fracture

5. The impact was so violent that the passenger-side window didn't just crack; it _____ into thousands of tiny pieces.

- (A) fractured
- (B) shattered
- (C) hit
- (D) slipped

6. He didn't see the low-hanging pipe in the basement and _____ his head quite hard.

- (A) hit
- (B) burned
- (C) scalded
- (D) slipped

7. While running for the bus, she caught her toe on a cracked sidewalk and _____, nearly falling face-first.

- (A) slipped
- (B) tripped
- (C) skidded
- (D) collided

8. The technician warned that the old generator might _____ if it is forced to run at maximum capacity for too long.

- (A) shatter
- (B) collide
- (C) malfunction
- (D) fracture

9. Be extremely careful when draining the pasta; the steam alone is hot enough to _____ your face.

- (A) scald
- (B) bleed
- (C) hurt
- (D) break

- 10. After the fall, his arm was at a strange angle; the doctor confirmed he had _____ the bone in two places.
- (A) sprained
 - (B) broken
 - (C) shattered
 - (D) hit
- 11. The cyclist was lucky to survive after he _____ with a parked car at high speed.
- (A) skidded
 - (B) collided
 - (C) obstructed
 - (D) slipped
- 12. I didn't break any bones, but my back still _____ quite a bit when I try to sit up straight.
- (A) slips
 - (B) hurts
 - (C) fractures
 - (D) scalds
- 13. Cutting corners on safety inspections will _____ the lives of everyone working on the oil rig.
- (A) jeopardize
 - (B) obstruct
 - (C) malfunction
 - (D) skid
- 14. The athlete was devastated to learn he had _____ his ankle, as it meant missing the entire season.
- (A) fractured
 - (B) sprained
 - (C) shattered
 - (D) tripped

15. Although there was no visible break, the surgeon feared the patient might have _____ his skull during the accident.

- A scalded
- B fractured
- C shattered
- D hit

ELTE Health & Safety quiz 107

1. ELTE Health & Safety quiz 106

You should never _____ a fire exit with equipment; it must remain clear for emergencies.

- A jeopardize
- B hit
- C obstruct
- D malfunction

i to obstruct: to block a path, passage, or exit with an obstacle

2. The kitchen floor was still wet from mopping, causing the waiter to _____ and drop the tray.

- A trip
- B slip
- C skid
- D obstruct

i to slip: to slide accidentally on a smooth or wet surface and lose balance

3. As the temperature dropped below freezing, the car began to _____ across the icy patches on the highway.

- A collide
- B malfunction
- C skid
- D jeopardize

i to skid: to slide out of control, usually as a result of a vehicle on ice or water

4. If the wound is deep, it will continue to _____ until you apply a sterile bandage and pressure. Look at all this blood!

- A break
- B scald
- C bleed
- D fracture

i to bleed: to lose blood from a wound or cut

5. The impact was so violent that the passenger-side window didn't just crack; it _____ into thousands of tiny pieces.

- A fractured
- B shattered
- C hit
- D slipped

i to shatter: to break suddenly into thousands of very small, sharp pieces

6. He didn't see the low-hanging pipe in the basement and _____ his head quite hard.

- A hit
- B burned
- C scalded
- D slipped

i to hit: to strike someone or something with force

7. While running for the bus, she caught her toe on a cracked sidewalk and _____, nearly falling face-first.

- A slipped
- B tripped
- C skidded
- D collided

i to trip: to catch one's foot on an object and stumble or fall

8. The technician warned that the old generator might _____ if it is forced to run at maximum capacity for too long.

A shatter

B collide

C malfunction

D fracture

i to malfunction: to fail to operate correctly or normally

9. Be extremely careful when draining the pasta; the steam alone is hot enough to _____ your face.

A scald

B bleed

C hurt

D break

i to scald: to burn the skin with a very hot liquid or steam

10. After the fall, his arm was at a strange angle; the doctor confirmed he had _____ the bone in two places.

A sprained

B broken

C shattered

D hit

i to break: to separate into two or more pieces as a result of force or impact

11. The cyclist was lucky to survive after he _____ with a parked car at high speed.

A skidded

B collided

C obstructed

D slipped

i to collide: to hit another person, vehicle, or object with force while moving

12. I didn't break any bones, but my back still _____ quite a bit when I try to sit up straight.

- A slips
- B hurts
- C fractures
- D scalds

i to hurt: to cause or feel physical pain

13. Cutting corners on safety inspections will _____ the lives of everyone working on the oil rig.

- A jeopardize
- B obstruct
- C malfunction
- D skid

i to jeopardize: to put someone or something in a dangerous or risky situation

14. The athlete was devastated to learn he had _____ his ankle, as it meant missing the entire season.

- A fractured
- B sprained
- C shattered
- D tripped

i to sprain: to twist the ligaments of a joint (like an ankle) painfully

15. Although there was no visible break, the surgeon feared the patient might have _____ his skull during the accident.

- A scalded
- B fractured
- C shattered
- D hit

i to fracture: to crack or break a bone (the formal medical term)