

ELTE Ungradable adjectives quiz

171

---

1. ELTE Ungradable adjectives quiz 171

When he found out someone had scratched his new car, he was extremely angry.

1 POINT

- (A) packed
- (B) ancient
- (C) livid
- (D) priceless

2. The audience gave a standing ovation because the pianist's performance was bright and impressive.

1 POINT

- (A) tedious
- (B) drenched
- (C) dazzling
- (D) perilous

3. The lecture lasted four hours and contained endless statistics, so everyone thought it was very boring.

1 POINT

- (A) excruciating
- (B) surreal
- (C) deafening
- (D) tedious

4. After hearing the explosion beside the stage speakers, the noise was very loud.

1 POINT

- (A) bewildered
- (B) hideous
- (C) deafening
- (D) affluent

5. She stared at the magician because she was very confused by the trick.

1 POINT

- (A) miserable
- (B) bewildered
- (C) perilous
- (D) packed

6. The abandoned city looked so strange and dreamlike that the experience felt very strange.

1 POINT

- (A) surreal
- (B) parched
- (C) excruciating
- (D) affluent

7. After falling off the mountain bike and breaking two ribs, he had a very bad pain.

1 POINT

- (A) deafening (pain)
- (B) packed (pain)
- (C) priceless (pain)
- (D) excruciating (pain)

8. The train was so very crowded that passengers could barely move.

1 POINT

- (A) ancient
- (B) hideous
- (C) packed
- (D) livid

9. When she opened the electricity bill, she was very surprised. The amount to be paid was surprisingly very high!

1 POINT

- (A) drenched
- (B) flabbergasted
- (C) perilous
- (D) tedious

10. After standing in the rain for an hour without an umbrella, we were completely wet.

1 POINT

- (A) packed
- (B) drenched
- (C) idiotic
- (D) ancient

11. The room was very dirty after the renovation.

1 POINT

- (A) filthy
- (B) dazzling
- (C) affluent
- (D) perilous

12. The sink was very clogged after the party.

1 POINT

- (A) packed
- (B) blocked
- (C) affluent
- (D) surreal

13. Losing all his life savings in a scam left him extremely upset and worried.

1 POINT

- (A) dazzling
- (B) priceless
- (C) deafening
- (D) distraught

14. She was very shocked by the horrible news.

1 POINT

- (A) appalled
- (B) affluent
- (C) tedious
- (D) drenched

15. The film was very good.

1 POINT

- (A) awful
- (B) terrific
- (C) ancient
- (D) drenched

16. ELTE Match Game

0 POINTS

ELTE Ungradable adjectives quiz 171

---

1. ELTE Ungradable adjectives quiz 171

When he found out someone had scratched his new car, he was extremely angry.

1 POINT

- A packed
- B ancient
- C livid
- D priceless

i livid — extremely angry, often to the point of losing control.

2. The audience gave a standing ovation because the pianist's performance was bright and impressive.

1 POINT

- A tedious
- B drenched
- C dazzling
- D perilous

i dazzling — extremely impressive or visually striking, almost overwhelming in brilliance.

3. The lecture lasted four hours and contained endless statistics, so everyone thought it was very boring.

1 POINT

- A excruciating
- B surreal
- C deafening
- D tedious

i tedious — extremely boring due to being long, repetitive, or dull.

4. After hearing the explosion beside the stage speakers, the noise was very loud.

1 POINT

- A bewildered
- B hideous
- C deafening
- D affluent

i deafening — extremely loud, so intense it is hard to hear anything else.

5. She stared at the magician because she was very confused by the trick.

1 POINT

- A miserable
- B bewildered
- C perilous
- D packed

i bewildered — extremely confused and unable to understand what is happening.

6. The abandoned city looked so strange and dreamlike that the experience felt very strange.

1 POINT

- A surreal
- B parched
- C excruciating
- D affluent

i surreal — extremely strange or dreamlike, almost unreal.

7. After falling off the mountain bike and breaking two ribs, he had a very bad pain.

1 POINT

- A deafening (pain)
- B packed (pain)
- C priceless (pain)
- D excruciating (pain)

i excruciating — extremely painful, almost unbearable.

8. The train was so very crowded that passengers could barely move.

1 POINT

- A ancient
- B hideous
- C packed
- D livid

i packed — extremely crowded with people or things.

9. When she opened the electricity bill, she was very surprised. The amount to be paid was surprisingly very high!

1 POINT

- A drenched
- B flabbergasted
- C perilous
- D tedious

i flabbergasted — feeling shocked, usually because of something you were not expecting

10. After standing in the rain for an hour without an umbrella, we were completely wet.

1 POINT

- A packed
- B drenched
- C idiotic
- D ancient

i drenched — extremely wet, completely soaked through.

11. The room was very dirty after the renovation.

1 POINT

- A filthy
- B dazzling
- C affluent
- D perilous

i filthy - extremely dirty or covered in dirt

12. The sink was very clogged after the party.

1 POINT

- A packed
- B blocked
- C affluent
- D surreal

i blocked — completely obstructed so that nothing can pass through.

13. Losing all his life savings in a scam left him extremely upset and worried.

1 POINT

- A dazzling
- B priceless
- C deafening
- D distraught

i distraught — extremely upset, worried, or emotionally distressed.

14. She was very shocked by the horrible news.

1 POINT

- A appalled
- B affluent
- C tedious
- D drenched

i appalled — extremely shocked and horrified by something unpleasant or unacceptable.

15. The film was very good.

1 POINT

- A awful
- B terrific
- C ancient
- D drenched

i terrific — extremely good, excellent, or impressive.

16. ELTE Match Game

0 POINTS