

ELTE Personalities quiz 185

1. ELTE Personalities quiz 185

Even after three people showed her clear evidence that she was wrong, she refused to change her mind. She's incredibly _____. (unwilling to change her opinion)

1 POINT

- (A) flaky
- (B) stubborn
- (C) touchy
- (D) laid-back

2. I stopped telling him personal things because he keeps asking questions about everyone else's private lives. He's so _____. (too interested in other people's affairs)

1 POINT

- (A) nosy
- (B) cocky
- (C) down-to-earth
- (D) flaky

3. She cancelled dinner plans for the third time this month just an hour before we were supposed to meet. She's a bit _____. (unreliable)

1 POINT

- (A) bossy
- (B) judgmental
- (C) flaky
- (D) touchy

4. Ever since he won that award, he acts as if he's better than everyone else. He's become really _____. (overconfident and annoying about it)

1 POINT

- A self-centred
- B cocky
- C stand-offish
- D sneaky

5. My manager tells everyone exactly what to do, even when it's none of her business. She's very _____. (likes controlling people)

1 POINT

- A bossy
- B laid-back
- C moody
- D touchy

6. One minute she's laughing and joking, and the next she's annoyed with everyone for no obvious reason. She's quite _____. (her emotions change quickly)

1 POINT

- A judgmental
- B sneaky
- C moody
- D down-to-earth

7. Despite becoming a millionaire, he still takes the bus and chats with everyone at the local café. He's very _____. (practical and not arrogant)

1 POINT

- A pushy
- B self-centred
- C down-to-earth
- D cocky

8. She smiled at her colleague in the meeting, but later spent the entire lunch break criticising her. That's rather _____. (different behaviour behind someone's back)

1 POINT

- (A) touchy
- (B) two-faced
- (C) stubborn
- (D) laid-back

9. The salesman wouldn't stop calling me and kept pressuring me to buy the more expensive model. He was extremely _____. (too forceful)

1 POINT

- (A) pushy
- (B) flaky
- (C) stand-offish
- (D) nosy

10. Whenever anyone gives him even mild feedback, he gets offended immediately. He's very _____. (easily upset or offended)

1 POINT

- (A) bossy
- (B) sneaky
- (C) touchy
- (D) laid-back

11. She barely spoke to anyone at the party and seemed uninterested in meeting new people. She came across as rather _____. (cold and distant)

1 POINT

- (A) stand-offish
- (B) judgmental
- (C) cocky
- (D) nosy

12. He hid my phone as a joke and then pretended he hadn't seen it all day. That was quite _____.
(secretive in a slightly dishonest way)

1 POINT

- (A) stubborn
- (B) sneaky
- (C) self-centred
- (D) touchy

13. She constantly comments on what other people wear, eat, and post online. She's incredibly _____. (quick to criticise others)

1 POINT

- (A) judgmental
- (B) flaky
- (C) down-to-earth
- (D) laid-back

14. Whenever we make plans, he only talks about what he wants to do and never asks anyone else's opinion. He's rather _____. (focused mainly on himself)

1 POINT

- (A) self-centred
- (B) bossy
- (C) moody
- (D) nosy

15. Everyone else was stressed about the project, but she just said, "We'll sort it out somehow." She's very _____. (relaxed and easy-going)

1 POINT

- (A) touchy
- (B) laid-back
- (C) judgmental
- (D) pushy

16. ELTE Match Game

Study this set of words: ELTE Flashcards-Personalities

0 POINTS

ELTE Personalities quiz 185

1. ELTE Personalities quiz 185

Even after three people showed her clear evidence that she was wrong, she refused to change her mind. She's incredibly _____. (unwilling to change her opinion)

1 POINT

- A flaky
- B stubborn
- C touchy
- D laid-back

i A stubborn person refuses to change their opinion or behaviour, even when presented with strong evidence.

2. I stopped telling him personal things because he keeps asking questions about everyone else's private lives. He's so _____. (too interested in other people's affairs)

1 POINT

- A nosy
- B cocky
- C down-to-earth
- D flaky

i A nosy person is excessively curious about other people's private matters.

3. She cancelled dinner plans for the third time this month just an hour before we were supposed to meet. She's a bit _____. (unreliable)

1 POINT

- A bossy
- B judgmental
- C flaky
- D touchy

i A flaky person is unreliable and often cancels plans or fails to follow through on commitments.

4. Ever since he won that award, he acts as if he's better than everyone else. He's become really _____. (overconfident and annoying about it)

1 POINT

- A self-centred
- B cocky
- C stand-offish
- D sneaky

i Cocky describes someone who is overly confident and often comes across as arrogant.

5. My manager tells everyone exactly what to do, even when it's none of her business. She's very _____. (likes controlling people)

1 POINT

- A bossy
- B laid-back
- C moody
- D touchy

i A bossy person enjoys telling others what to do and trying to control situations.

6. One minute she's laughing and joking, and the next she's annoyed with everyone for no obvious reason. She's quite _____. (her emotions change quickly)

1 POINT

- A judgmental
- B sneaky
- C moody
- D down-to-earth

i A moody person experiences frequent and often unpredictable changes in mood.

7. Despite becoming a millionaire, he still takes the bus and chats with everyone at the local café. He's very _____. (practical and not arrogant)

1 POINT

- A pushy
- B self-centred
- C down-to-earth
- D cocky

i Someone who is down-to-earth is practical, humble, and easy to relate to despite their success.

8. She smiled at her colleague in the meeting, but later spent the entire lunch break criticising her. That's rather _____. (different behaviour behind someone's back)

1 POINT

- A touchy
- B two-faced
- C stubborn
- D laid-back

i A two-faced person behaves nicely to someone's face but speaks negatively about them behind their back.

9. The salesman wouldn't stop calling me and kept pressuring me to buy the more expensive model. He was extremely _____. (too forceful)

1 POINT

- A pushy
- B flaky
- C stand-offish
- D nosy

i A pushy person is overly forceful and tries to pressure others into doing something.

10. Whenever anyone gives him even mild feedback, he gets offended immediately. He's very _____. (easily upset or offended)

1 POINT

- A bossy
- B sneaky
- C touchy
- D laid-back

i A touchy person is easily hurt, offended, or upset by criticism or comments.

11. She barely spoke to anyone at the party and seemed uninterested in meeting new people. She came across as rather _____. (cold and distant)

1 POINT

- A stand-offish
- B judgmental
- C cocky
- D nosy

i A stand-offish person appears distant, reserved, or unfriendly, especially when meeting others.

12. He hid my phone as a joke and then pretended he hadn't seen it all day. That was quite _____. (secretive in a slightly dishonest way)

1 POINT

- A stubborn
- B sneaky
- C self-centred
- D touchy

i Sneaky behaviour involves being secretive or slightly dishonest to achieve something without being noticed.

13. She constantly comments on what other people wear, eat, and post online. She's incredibly _____. (quick to criticise others)

1 POINT

- A judgmental
- B flaky
- C down-to-earth
- D laid-back

i A judgmental person tends to criticise others and form negative opinions about them quickly.

14. Whenever we make plans, he only talks about what he wants to do and never asks anyone else's opinion. He's rather _____. (focused mainly on himself)

1 POINT

- A self-centred
- B bossy
- C moody
- D nosy

i A self-centred person mainly thinks about their own needs, interests, and desires.

15. Everyone else was stressed about the project, but she just said, "We'll sort it out somehow." She's very _____. (relaxed and easy-going)

1 POINT

- A touchy
- B laid-back
- C judgmental
- D pushy

i A laid-back person remains calm and relaxed, even in situations that make others anxious.

16. ELTE Match Game

Study this set of words: ELTE Flashcards-Personalities

0 POINTS